CALCUTTA'S 'NO' TO CORONATION

Civic Protest Against Unwanted Constitution And Detention Policy

CALCUTTA, May 10.

By 47 against 23 votes a special meeting of the Calcutta Corporation held this evening decided not to take part in the celebrations of the Coronation and accordingly directed the Corporation Executive not to spend any money on any functions connected with the Coronation.

A motion to this effect which was sponsored by a Congress Councillor suggested that this course of action was meant as a mark of protest against.

The British Parliament thrusting an unwanted constitution upon India, and Government's policy of detention without trial of more than 2,000 of Indians.

NO DISRESPECT TO KING.

The resolution which was adopted, however, made it clear that it did not mean any personal disrespect to His Majesty the King.

All elected Hindu and Mahomedan Councillors with the exception of one voted for the motion while the European Group and the nominated Councillors 'en bloc' voted against.—United Press

COHENS' RESOLUTION RULED OUT

CALCUTTA, May 10.

The resolution of Mr. D. J. Cohen, which sought to convey the loyalty and devotion of the Corporation to Their Majesties on the occasion of the Coronation was ruled out, in view of the previous resolution which was carried.

Mayor (S. K. Roy Chowdhury) ruled it out of order on the ground that the resolution sought to commit the Corporation to participation in the Coronation in an indirect way, and some money of the Corporation would be spent in sending a cable to that effect, which they could not afford, in view of the resolution which had been already adopted.—A. P.

BELGAUM AGAINST PARTICIPATION

Bombay Honours Ansari's Memory

SOLDIER OF FREEDOM AND APOSTLE OF UNITY

'Frontier Gandhi' Suggests Communal Amity As Fitting Memorial

"I am one of those who sincerely believe that the country can reach its goal earlier, if there is less talk and more work. I do not think that we will make any progress if we talk more and do less.

"It is my belief, after looking at the way in which some people behave that neither the Muslim understands what his religion enjoins him to do nor does the Hindu understand the teachings of Hinduism. If we all took the side of the wronged or oppressed person, whether he was a Hindu or Muslim, and denounced the wrong-doer and the oppressor, whether he was our co-religionist or otherwise, we would have done much to solve the Hindu-Muslim problem."

Thus observed Khan Abdul Gaffar Khan, in the course of his speech on Monday evening at the Congress House presiding over the first Death Anniversary meeting in memory of late Dr. Ansari.

Mr. K. F. Nariman in requesting Khan Abdul Gaffar Khan to take the chair said that the gap left by the untimely death of Dr. M. A. Ansari in the public life of the country could never be filled. If to-day there had been constitutional deadlocks; if Congress had come out in brighter colours than ever before, it was entirely due to Dr. M. A. Ansari, who had the courage of conviction and political foresightedness and sagacity to suggest a change of policy for the Congress at a time, when everyone was afraid to mention the very word "legislatures." If he had been alive today, he would have been undoubtedly the President of the Congress Parliament Board. It was the duty of the people of India to see that what he had aimed at and strived all through his life was achieved; namely Hindu-Muslim unity and freedom for the country.

A FITTING MEMORIAL.

Mr. S. A. Brelvi paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the departed leader with whom he was closely connected. He thought that, however, much one praised Dr. Ansari's achievements, justice could not be done to him. He had dedicated his life to the service of the country. He was a first class doctor and earned a lot of money, but he spent the whole of it for the country. His generosity and hospitality were proverbial. His residence, No. 1 Daryaganj, like Anand Bhuvan, the residence of Pt. Motilal Nehru and Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru could never be forgotten by the people of India, for the important part they had played in the freedom movement of the country. Dr. Ansari was entirely free from the communal spirit and there were few persons in India who were so free from the communal spirit as he was. He was true Nationalist not because he had no religion but because he was true Muslim who had correctly understood Islam and acted upto it. Islam and political slavery were incompatible Dr. Ansari, therefore, asked his Muslim brethren not only to fight for freedom shoulder to shoulder with their Hindu fellow-countrymen but also to give a lead to the latter in this respect. Dr. Ansari was one of those who believed that freedom was not possible without Hindu-Muslim co-operation and there could be no doubt that he tried his best towards achieving that ideal. In fact no leader had done more to achieve Hindu-Muslim Unity than Dr. Ansari. He believed that the Indian National Congress was the only political organisation in the country which could successfully fight for the freedom of the Country, and advised his Muslim brethren, to join the Congress in their thousands and through sacrifices so increase their strength and influence in it as to be able to protect their legitimate interests effectively.

Concluding Mr. Brelvi said that he was sorry that so far no organised effort had been made towards the erection of a memorial to commemorate the memory of the late Dr. M. A. Ansari. He suggested that the strengthening of the National Muslim University of Delhi, for which Dr. Ansari worked hard should in itself be a worthy memorial.

FIGHTER FOR FREEDOM.

Dr. K. A. Hamied said that Dr. Ansari was one of India's greatest leaders. He was one of those who worked for the freedom of the country to the very end of their lives. His ambition was to unite Hindus and Muslims into one solid nation, so that India might fight her battle for freedom with greater vigour. He referred to the loss India had sustained during the last few years in the untimely death of several of her most eminent leaders. He appealed to the great leaders of India like Mahatma Gandhi, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, Khan Abdul Gaffer Khan and Mrs. Sarojini Naidu to take greater care of their health.

Dr. Kazi Hamied said that Dr. Ansari had entered public life in 1911, and since then he had been in the thick of it. There was not a single movement that was started in the country either for the benefit of Mussalmans or for the benefit of the country as a whole, in which Dr. Ansari did not prominently figure. He was one of those who believed that there was no contradiction between the teachings of Islam and the Indian National Movement. Dr. Ansari disagreed with those Muslim leaders who were against Muslims taking active part in Indian Freedom movement and called upon his co-religionists actively to participate in the Congress proceedings. The speaker hoped that Khan Abdul Gaffar Khan, would surely attempt and no doubt achieve Hindu-Muslim unity within a year, towards Irrigation Branch, United Provinces; Mr. C. H. Bristow, Secretary to Governor of Bombay; Mr. S. H. Y. Oulsnam, Reforms Officer, C. P. Government; Major A. E. Cartmel, Commandant Northern Shan States Battalion, Burma Frontier Force, Lashio, Northern Shan States, Burma; Mr. B. M. Sullivan.

Warrant For Labour Leader

(From A Correspondent.)

NEW DELHI, (By Mail.)

On the 7th afternoon, one C.I.D. officer went to the residence of Sreemati Chandoo Bibi at Dharampura with a warrant, which he produced, to arrest Sj. Ajit Das Gupta, labour leader of Bengal, who had been residing there as her guest for some time. But as he has left her place, he was not found.

It may be remembered that a vigorous search was made some days back in the city and the police seized some Socialist literatures published from Arjun Press by Workers' League, Delhi, and also the Trade Union papers for the coming T.U.C. session. It is alleged that the warrant has been issued against Sjt. Das Gupta in that connection.

BUS STRIKE TO CONTINUE

Prospects Of Prolonged Stoppage & Trolleymen Also Joining

LONDON, May 10.

The Busmens Conference rejected the Transport Board's offer by 47 votes to three, and decided to continue the strike, and referred to the Executive Council the question of extending the strike to other services. There is now the prospect of prolonged stoppage, with the additional danger of 12,000 tram and trolley bus men joining it.

Efforts by the Minister of Mines to end the colliery dispute at Haworth was also fruitless, as the Nottingham Colliery owners and the local so-called Spencer Trade Uuion declined to agree to an unconditional meeting with the miners federation. The federation thereupon decided to tender notices on Saturday for strike on May 19.—Reuter.

The rules will shortly come up before the Governor-General for his approval.

It is explained here that Sir B. L. C. P. MINISTRY MASQUERADING

Congress Has Not Shirked Responsibility

(From Our Correspondent)
NAGPUR: (By Mail).

"Gundam Nama Jao Faroash"—the dealers in maze masquerading under the noble name of wheat-merchants, this was the description given by Mr. P. K. Salve, of the Minority Ministry, at a public meeting held yesterday at the Town Hall under the presidentship of Dr. N. B. Khare, leader of the Congress Party in the Assembly.

Continuing Mr. Salve said that the Congress had not deserted its post and the Congress had not shirked responsibility. The Congress wanted assurance for the benefit of the people. The assurance was meant to prevent interference from the Governors. If they had accepted office they would soon have come into conflict with the Governors and made to resign. The blame would have been thrown upon their shoulders.

Mr. M. J. Kanetkar described the Convention as a stroke of the axe that would shake the mighty tree of the Government.

Mr. Dhawale said that the only object of the Government was to keep the Congress out of office. But the Congress would not allow the minority ministry to function.

Nagpur District Spends Rs. 65,000 Over Election Battles

(From Our Correspondent)
NAGPUR: (By Mail).

Nagpur has spent about Rs. 65,000 in the last elections. In all the constituencies, except the women's, it is the runners up who had had to spend more than the winners. Mr. Bajrang Thekedar, secured with his Rs. 2,000 what Mr. Ghatate could not get with his Rs. 13,000. Mr. Udhoji could become an M.L.A. with Rs. 3,000 where Rai Sahib Lala Jainarain failed with thrice the amount. Dr. Paranjpe also lost to Dr. Khare in the same proportion.

The following figures of election expenses make an interesting reading:—

Dr. Khare, Rs. 2,658-12-3; Dr. Paranjpe Rs. 7,269-8; Mrs. A. Kale Rs.2,375-9-9; Mrs. Vidyawati Dewadia Rs. 958-4-9; Mr. M. Y. Shareef Rs. 1,283-15-6; Mr. Samiulla Khan Rs. 2,839-15-6; Mr. Udhoji Rs. 2,782-14-3; Lala Jainarain Rs. 7,849-3-3; Mr. Bajrang Thekedar Rs. 2,360-8-3; Mr. Ghatate Rs. 13-715-13-9; Mr. Bhikulal Chandak Rs. 3,485-4.

Pan And Kela Hartal To Continue Till Thursday

Sequel To Attitude Of B. B. & C. I. Railway Towards Demand Of Bassein Merchants

The 'Pan' and 'Kela' merchants of Bassein, who number about 60, and export both 'Pan' and 'Kela' to lakhs of retail dealers in thousands of centres all over the country, have been observing Hartal since the 8th of this month as a protest against the attitude of the B.B. and C.I. Railway authorities in not reducing the Railway freight charges for the export of 'Kela' and 'Pan.' While almost all other railways in India have reduced the charges by 50 per cent., the B.B. & C.I. authorities are not prepared to do it. Thus the merchants are losing their trade.

At first the hartal was meant for only three days, but since the Secretary of the B.B. and C.I. Railway is stated to have said that the railway authorities could not give any definite reply before the 13th, a meeting was held on the 9th at Bassein and the merchants decided to continue the Hartal till the 13th. Thus several thousands of shops all over the country, excepting Bombay, which depend for their 'pan' and 'kela' on the Bassein merchants will have to close down for those days.

The income to the railways through the Bassein merchants exceed rupees five lakhs a year.

SRI RANJANI SABHA AMATEURS

The members of the Sri Ranjani Sabha put on boards "Raja Bhakti," a historical play, on Sunday, at Damodar Thackersey Hall, Parel. The amateurs showed a noteworthy improvement over their previous performance and all of them aimed at dramatic effect without indulging in the usual song-hits. The scenic arrangements and sartorial make-up showed an improved taste, though the delay between scenes sometimes tried the patience of the audience. Madalasa occupied the centre of the picture and her role as an usurper and self-seeker, using men and women as mere pawn in the Imperial theme, was well portrayed. In the trail of plots and counter-plots, Madalasa showed a touch of human kindness only in her playing off two rival suitors by all arts and artifices of love, and this episode was enacted with consummate skill. Vikranta was a man of sorrows, as suffering was the badge of champions of royalty in an age of anarchy. His heroism, unflinching faith in his cause, feeling outbursts of enthusiasm and occasional loud-thinking were well brought out, and throughout the play, the actor impressed himself as the man of destiny. Among the minor characters, Devangana played an impressive role in daring the insolent might of the usurper Sarojini sacrificed her love on the altar of her cause and her court-martialling of her husband, because of political differences had a touch of the serio-comic. The repetition of the much-advertised dance item was unwarranted and hence unwanted.

WORLD SUGAR AGREEMENT

Indian Mills Protest Against London Decision

CALCUTTA, (By Mail).

The Committee of the Indian Sugar Mills Association have sent the following telegram to the Secretary to the Government of India, Commerce Department:—

"The Committee of the Indian Sugar Mills Association express their strong resentment against the reported agreement arrived at the International Sugar Conference to the effect that India has agreed to prohibit sea-borne exports of sugar except to Burma. The Indian Sugar Mills Association on behalf of the industry emphatically protests against any such commitment having been given and is surprised how such binding was agreed to and by whom not only without consulting representatives of the industry whose interests are most affected by the reported decision, but also in the face of their insistent demand for a share in the export trade.

The Committee regret the lighthearted manner in which the Government of India have been treating this important problem and should be glad to know whether such binding was given with the consent and knowledge of the Government. The Committee earnestly hope that the Government will issue an immediate statement repudiating this binding on India's legitimate right of export.

REFUSE TO RATIFY "OUTRAGEOUS" AGREEMENT

I. S. M. Association Vice-President's Appeal To India Govt.

CALCUTTA, (By Mail.)

Lala Karamchand Thapar, Vice-President of the Indian Sugar Mills Association interviewed in connection with the reported agreement at the International Sugar Conference providing 'inter alia' for the prohibition of seabourne export of sugar from India except to Burma said.

Any such restriction on the legitimate right of India to export her sugar, without consulting the representatives of the Industry who are most affected, is not only unjust but outrageous. It is an anti-climax to the demands of the Industry for an export quota.

It is extremely regrettable that in spite of repeated representations to the Government of India, they neither enabled the Industry to be represented directly at the International Sugar Conference nor, it seems, made arrrangements for the claims of the Industry being put through their own nominated official representative. The whole question has been treated very lightly by the Government of India and I have no doubt that Legislative Assembly will refuse to ratify the decision, if the Government of India does not repudiate meanwhile.

JEPSEN CUP HOCKEY

Results Of Monday's Fixtures

BOMBAY: Monday.

Two games were again down for decision in the Jepson Cup Hockey Tournament, to-day. In the first Clare Hockey Club met and defeated the Nondescripts by one goal to nil.

In the second game H.V.M. XI beat the Telephone 'B' by three goals to nil. In both games the standard of hockey was poor

GAME

The Clare Hockey Club in the first game had the better of the exchanges throughout the play. In the early stages Price, the inner right, missed a hit when an empty goal was at his mercy. Up and down play followed for the major part of the half and with a few minutes left for the interval, Bocarro, the Clare left-half, with a spectacular solo effort beat a host of defenders and turned to account the all-important point. Soon after, the interval arrived with the Clare Club having one goal to advantage.

Resuming play, the Clare Club dominated, but although their approach work was good, the finishing was poor and the good work put in by Samson, in the opposing defence, prevented them from increasing their lead; midway through Rebello, the Club's inner-right, missed a good chance when he pushed the ball out of play when practically at the mouth of the goal. The final whistle found:

THE RESULT.

Clare H. C.	1 goal
Nondescripts	Nil.

Telephone "B" Beaten By H. V. M.

The Telephone 'B' who fielded a depleted side showed that they were not able to stand up to the pressure of the H.V.M. XI when within five minutes from the start James, their centre-forward, opened the score. After a while Preece, the outside-left, got in and pushed the ball out of play. Keeping up heavy pressure, H.V.M. had their opponents pinned to their area, and twenty minutes after, Merchant, their inside-right, added the second point, while Thipthorpe, just before the interval put his side ahead with the third goal.

The second half found the H.V.M. XI slacken off and resort to hard hitting tactics, and except for one or two occasional raids on the part of the Telephone XI, H.V.M. dominated throughout and left the field winners by the three goals scored in the first half of the game.

THE RESULT.

H.V.M. XI.	3 goals.
Telephone "B"	Nil.

THE TEAMS.

IMPORTED FROM LONDON

Bombay Honours Ansari's Memory

Mrs. Manoen Mulji said that Dr. M. A. Ansari was one of those who were in the vanguard of the anti-Imperialist fight and movement for political and economic Independence of India.

COMMUNALISM MUST GO

Mr. Hussienbhoy Lalji said that Dr. M. A. Ansari strove throughout his life to achieve two things; Freedom for the country and brotherhood among all Indians. He thought that the time for mere talk had gone, and the time had come for some action. The speaker appealed to those assembled to do something instead of merely talking. It was a pity that in every organisation in Bombay, called to be the "Urbs Prima in Indis" whether it was a commercial organisation or a gymkhana, people were thinking on communal lines. So long as Communism was there, the future was not bright. He reminded the audience that all European joined together, irrespective of the country to which they belonged, when they came to India. Why should not all Indians join together and resist exploitation? It could be done. He suggested the employment of Hindus by Muslims and Muslims by Hindus as that would prove to be a solution of the communal question.

JAIL COMRADES.

Khan Abdul Gaffar Khan, who was listened to with rapt attention in the course of his speech said that the previous speakers had exhausted everything that could be said about the late Dr. Ansari and had left nothing for him to say. He personally did not believe in repeating what had already been said. He was one of those who had faith in the dictum that less talk and more work would lead to success than more talk and less work.

Continuing the "Frontier Gandhi" said that he was with Dr. Ansari in Gujrat (Punjab) Jail. The Doctor was a first-class medical practitioner. He was also a great patriot and a statesman of the first rank. The loss to the country by his death was immense. The gap could not be filled. But there was no use in recounting the achievements of the leader who had passed away or feeling for the loss. It was their duty to go ahead in the path till the goal was reached. It was the practice all over the world to celebrate death anniversaries, so that the teachings of great men might be remembered, that they might guide the present generation. That was exactly what the religious books taught. Holi and Bakr-Id were just another reminder. They were celebrated to commemorate a certain great event.

WORK OF MISCHIEF-MONGERS.

Referring to communal clashes, the speaker said that there were interested parties always who benefited by these clashes. During communal riots, the Hindus and Muslims did quite the contrary of what was expected of them by their respective religions. It only showed that neither the Hindu nor the Muslim understood his religion properly. The late Dr. M. A. Ansari preached Unity and Love among all Indians, irrespective of the religion they professed. He personally did not differentiate between a Hindu or a Muslim. Both were alike to him.

The speaker deplored the fact that India was not making the progress that it ought to, though there was no doubt that some progress had been made. The fault was not with the people but with the leaders. If the people really were anxious to commemorate the memory of the late Dr. Ansari and were anxious to establish Unity among all sections of Indians, the speaker would give them an advice which they should follow faithfully.

HOW TO AVERT CLASHES.

He did not want them to be blind followers, because he was sure that those who followed blindly could follow others in the same way. He wanted them to think for themselves and see, if that was the proper and just course. If his advice was followed the speaker was confident that India would immediately achieve one quarter of Dr. Ansari's ambitions. He suggested that whenever a quarrel took place between a Hindu and a Muslim, those who reached the spot where the quarrel took place, should find out who was the person who had been wronged, and side with him irrespective of the fact that he belonged to some other religion than his own. Support him who was in the right, instead of blindly joining the co-religionist even if he was the wrong-doer. If that was done, many of the communal clashes could be averted. (Cheers). The speaker said that no purpose would be served by mere cheers. He had become a 'Bania' now, and would be satisfied by mere cheers. He wanted the people to practise what he had told them and find out if that was not a way how clashes could be averted.

BHOPAL BAN AND AND ITS SEQUEL

BHOPAL, May 10.

Mr. Laxminarayan Sharma wires:

News of organising Bhopal Hindu Conference on May 15 has already appeared in the press. In spite of sec. 144, the Hindu Sabha is determined to hold conference and has issued a bulletin, it is learnt, to that effect. Authorities are watching developments.

BADEN POWELL HAS ADDED INSULT TO INJURY

Boycott Of Imperialist Organisation Urged As Reply To Libel On India

Mr. Indulal Yagnik writes:—

Lord Baden Powell the head of the Scout Movement has cast a wanton aspersion at the whole of India. He has foully abused our whole nation of 35 crores for "lack of Character."

And this on the conclusion of his visit to India which extended kind hospitality to him and which paraded its boy scouts and girl guides before his condescending eyes! But apparently gratefulness does not count as a virtue with this great Paragon of Character.

He might indeed pose as a frank critic and a candid friend. But then why had he not the courage to utter this libel before he left the soil of India? Why has he chosen to sling mud at us from the safe distance of 6,000 miles?

Nor can sheer ignorance be his excuse. Doesn't this retired Indian Military officer know the Hindustani word "Izzat" which connotes even far more than the English word "honour" to the minds of Indians?

This wilful defamation of a whole nation should be met by sterling acts and not by words or arguments. An ounce of action is better understood and appreciated than tons of words on the west of Suez.

Boycott The Movement

What shall we then do?

Firstly, let all students and youth organisations all over the country denounce Baden Powell's remarks and cast the insult back in his face. We will not demand "amende honourable" from him.

Secondly, and this is most important, the self-respecting students and youths of India should immediately and finally proclaim a ban on his "Boy Scout" and "Girl Guide" organisations

Lest and doubt this, let me quote the high authority of the redoubtable Winston Churchill, who paid his proud homage to General Botha—who agreed at the end of the Boer war to incorporate his independent Republics in the British Empire—Booth Tucker, the British founder of the Salvation Army, and Baden Powell, the founder of the Scout Movement as the three greatest though least known pillars of the British Empire.

Primarily British

Let us not be deceived by the supposed international character of the Scout Movement. Nobody cares a rap for it in America or on the Continent. It is primarily a British organisation. The Oath of loyalty to the Crown prescribed for every Scout and Guide proves it to the hilt

Nor have the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides ever joined our army of National struggle. They are trained to work under the Union Jack and not under National Tricolour. If any of them helped in their individual capacity, they did so not on account of but in spite of their scout training

All this has long been clear as day-light. But Baden Powell has now added insult to injury. Youth organisations and Congress Committees patriots and politicians must now proclaim an all India Boycott of the whole Imperialist organisation of this arch-Imperialist and prevail on all decent and self-respecting boys and girls in the movements to resign "en masse".

Thus shall we prove and impress the strength of our Character on the Chief Scout. Anything less will only be deemed as empty noise.

REZA SHAH WORKS MIRACLE

Social Reform Makes Rapid Headway In Iran

The marriage laws in Iran provided that the boy and the girl must be given a chance of knowing each other, by their parents before the couple was united in wedlock, observed Prof. A. M. Moulvi of the Karnatak College, Dharwar, speaking at a public meeting held at the K. R. Cama Oriental Institute, on Monday.

Prof. Moulvi spoke on "Modern Iran" at the meeting held under the auspices of the Iran League.

Sir Jehangir C. Coyaji presided

Prof. Moulvi described the conditions of life and the customs now in vogue in Iran at length. He gave an account of the heroic part played by the Iranian women. In the agitation for the discarding of the "Purdah". He found the Iranian police most courteous and their standard of efficiency compared favourably with that of the police force in Great Britain.

REZA SHAH WORKS FOR IT.

The secret of the rapid progress of Iran was that Reza Shah, the King of Iran, moved with the people and not against them. Progressive measures were introduced in the State, only after preparing the public for their favourable reception, by means of elaborate propaganda.

Where was the money for bringing about these vast reforms in the country?

Prof. Moulvi enumerated the resources of the country from which money was drawn by the State.

There seemed to be a considerable amount of buried treasure, hidden away underground in the previous generations as a measure of safety. Large quantities of such treasures were being found somewhere or other.

Then rich Iranian Jews, who were hitherto investing their money in other countries were induced to invest that money in Iran itself and thus contribute to the growth of Iranian prosperity.

MULLAHS FOR WORK.

Besides nearly one-tenth of the population, who constituted the class of Mullahs was sent to work and thus parasitism to this extent was eliminated.

Hitherto women were not mentioned in the census reports and now women too contributed their share to the prosperity of the nation.

Iran too adopted the barter system which was working satisfactorily.

Aga Saif Azad, Editor of the "Iran-i-Bastan," Teheran, next addressed the gathering and prayed for the long life of His Majesty Reza Shah of Iran.

MAGISTRATE'S BAN MUST BE WITHDRAWN

(From Our Correspondent).

POONA: May 10.

Sardar G. N. Mujumdar, ex-M. L.A., and President of the Poona Hindus' Deputation, which waited on Poona Collector on the 6th instant has forwarded to Bombay Government the memorial in connection with the Sonya Maruti Temple dispute.

The memorial states, feeling that the matter was urgent the deputation thinks its duty to represent all salient facts by this memorial to your Excellency for your Excellency's personal action and for redressing grievances of all Hindus.

Proceeding the memorial sums up briefly the history of the Sonya Maruti dispute and continues, "There is the duty of worship and 'Puja' to be performed according to tradition and sentiments of devout Hindus, which is not complete without ringing of bell at various times. The ringing of bell is also prohibited.

"ULTRA-VIRES."

It is submitted, the interpretation of the District Magistrate's order is illegal and 'ultra vires!' There was no occasion of necessity for prohibiting the playing of musical instruments also. As far as we know, such prohibition had not been pressed for by Mahomedans also. By such order, however, the feelings of the Poona Hindus are injured and as your Excellency must have already noted the tension in the City is raging higher and higher day by day and we do not know to what pitch it may rise if this prohibition is not at once withdrawn."

Concluding the memorial submits that the District Magistrate ought to have acted under Section 44 of the District Police Act and not issued a prohibitory order against Hindus under Sec. 42 and prays for immediate cancellation of the order.

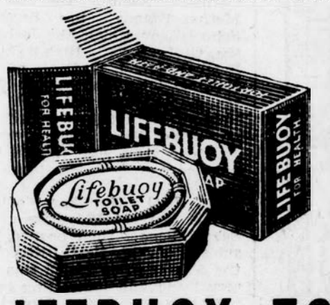
NATURAL PERSPIRATION may lead to 'B.O.' (Body-Odour)

To perspire is a natural and necessary function of the human body—vital to life and health. In itself, perspiration is harmless and inoffensive, but if it is allowed to remain in the skin-pores it soon becomes stale and objectionable. And stale perspiration causes 'B.O.' (Body-Odour). 'B.O.' may happen to anyone, and the victim may not be aware of it himself. So it is essential to take the greatest possible care to guard against offending.



The best way to ensure against 'B.O.' is to use Lifebuoy Toilet Soap. Lifebuoy Toilet Soap is a health soap; it contains a special antiseptic health ingredient. Its lather is rich and penetrating. It goes deep down into the pores of the skin and removes the waste matter and impurities that cause Body-Odour.

Don't risk offence, use Lifebuoy Toilet Soap from to-day.

Rs. 10,000 FOR HINDU FOUNDLING HOME

President Appeals For Funds To Run Matunga Institute

They lacked proper publicity and ought to make themselves known as widely as possible and also should collect small donations from every house. "A good cause never fails for want of funds". Thus observed Mr. L. R. Tairsee, presiding at the first anniversary of the Hindu Foundling Home of the Hindu Dean Daya Sangh at King's Circle, Matunga, Bombay, on Sunday evening.

There was a big gathering to see the little children—most of them orphans and the rest "not wanted" by their parents. The home has at present 24 inmates—babies from six days to just over a year.

In his report, Dr. A. P. Naik, the Secretary, traced the origin and growth of the institution. They required a more spacious place than the present premises on the top floor of the Improvement Trust Buildings near King's Circle. They were, he said, making efforts to build their own Home.

PRESIDENT'S APPEAL.

After referring to the lack of proper publicity to the Home and suggesting to them to collect small donations, the President urged Hindu Society to indulge less in thinking of their past glory and to care more about the present. He appealed to all present to contribute their mite to the institution.

Mr. S. S. Kavalekar paid tributes to those who were working for the welfare of the Home.

Dr. K. S. Mhaskar, Messrs. L. G. Vinze, Gordhandas G. Morarji, Hiralal Dave also appealed to the public to make liberally to help the institution.

An anonymous donation of Rs. 10,000 was announced and the function terminated after the presentation of the medals to the first three inmates of the Home by the President.

"Jam-e-Jamshed" Coronation Number

The Coronation number of Jam-e-Jamshed is profusely illustrated and many pages ar edevoted to give the reader an intimate picture of King George and Queen Elizabeth. Besides there are several interesting articles in English and Gujerati, including "The New Era in India: An appeal to Englishmen" voiced by Sir Byramjee Jeejeebhoy.

Sir P. C. Sethna, Sir Homi Mehta and Col. Sir B. H. Nanavaty have contributed articles on the present political situation in India.

In this connection, it is necessary to point out that the Coronation number is not the exact place for the vituperative and highly objectionable outbursts by a person like Sir B. H. Nanavaty against Mahatma Gandhi and Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the two most revered leaders, respected by millions in this country.

Mr. Manu Subedar, Mr. J. K. Mehta and Mr. L. R. Tairsee are among the other contributors to the Coronation number. The valuable article written by Mr. P. P. Balsara, Agent to the Administrator-General, Government of Zanzibar, on "White Versus Coloured People", deserves the attention of every Indian.

TALK OF THE SUBURBS

(By: A SUBURBAN MAN)

The week-end was not a very busy one with a few public meetings one whist drive and a band performances.

HORSE RIDING AT JUHU

That the Juhu season is now in full swing, is a fact which could be judged from the large crowds flocking daily.

Horse riding on the Juhu sands is now becoming a popular pleasure and many horses are on hire at nominal charges. Riding is one of the best sports, but if during the evenings when the whole beach is full of merry makers it is very dangerous and ought to be put a stop to, or at least certain portion of the beach should not be permitted to be made use of.

BANDRA RENTS TOO HIGH.

Of late the suburbs have experienced a building boom to an extent that is quite credible but yet true. Buildings are springing nearly every day like the proverbial mushroom. Especially Bandra is nearly crowded and the small gaps that are left between newly-built bungalows are expected to be filled up with more buildings next year.

In Bandra every few yards you will notice boards that let you know that the building to "to be let"

The cause of this I learnt is that the rents were so high that they would never suit the purse of the average man.

PRIZE DISTRIBUTION AT THANA

On Sunday the St. John the Baptist School Thana held their annual sport and prize distribution in the presence of the Rt. Rev. C. Ghezzi, Administrator of the Diocese of Bombay.

From the annual report, one could judge the rapid progress the school has made. Fr. Ghezzi congratulated Rev. J. C. Ferreira, the Manager, Rev. Wilfred Pereira, the Principal and the staff for the great pains they had taken towards the progress of the school and said that with the addition of the Matriculation class, the school would soon become a full-fledged High School. He asked the residents to give the institution their full support and also presented a annual scholarship in the name of the late Dr. J. B. Lima, Archbishop of Bombay.

FRAUD ON INDIANISATION

The "At Home" given by Dr. S K. Vaidya, President of the Bombay Medical Union, to the members of the Union and to the M. L. A.'s and M. L. C.'s in Bombay City and Suburbs and prominent citizens would ordinarily have been a purely social function. But the grievances that the medical profession and the public in general are labouring under at this time gave the function a wholesome political turn. Nor is this Union one of those bodies—happily getting very few—that take fright at the very mention of politics. In safe-guarding the rights of the profession, said Mr. Vaidya, the members of the Union were all nationalists, whether they were Hindus, Muslims, Parsis, Christians or Jews. They would carry on agitation in every legitimate manner to see that there was no racial discrimination against Indian doctors and that not a single public post was reserved for a non-Indian. Ordinarily, the Union would have ventilated its grievances in the legislature but as the latter has been robbed of its rights by the Governor of Bombay and his so-called Ministers, the Union has to devise other ways to acquaint available legislators with these grievances. The Union will do well not to stop at this function but to carry on its agitation through the Nationalist Press and otherwise till its grievances are redressed.

Europeanisation

The public is quite at one with the Medical Union in insisting that not a single post in the Indian Medical Service should be reserved for a non-Indian and that the civil side of the I. M. S. should be abolished. But that policy does not suit the interests of the Government though they talk quite a lot about Indianisation of the Services. At present the I. M. S. cadre consists of 649 officers, 386 British and only 263 Indian. This is an unconscionable position and grossly unjust to India, particularly because there are at present in the country a large number of Indian doctors who have far better qualifications than the British Officers and can with credit replace every one of them. As if the present position were not bad enough, the Government of India have recently made it far worse. By deciding to reduce the number of Indian Officers by 65 while leaving the British personnel intact, they have reduced the proportion of Indians. What is much, worse, the number of British Officers is to remain reserved for an indefinite period. It is verily a fraud on Indianisation, it is rather Europeanisation at India's expense. And to add insult to injury, Government have the audacity to tell the public that a certain number of European doctors are indispensable in the service to attend to the higher British Officers in the country, who refuse to be treated by Indian doctors. Sir Henry Gidney himself characterised this plea as "non-sense". It is worse than that. It is an intolerable insult. It is not at all surprising that the last Assembly session inflicted a crushing defeat on Government through an adjournment motion on this question.

Not Wanted

At the Bombay Union's function Dr. Deshmukh pointed out that in accordance with Government's new scheme fifteen men on the Civil List of the I. M. S. are to be foisted on the Bombay Presidency and three of them are to be appointed to senior specialist posts in a teaching college. It means that whether these three are specialists or not, they are to be appointed as such in preference to Indians whose qualifications are far superior to theirs. And all this because they have a white skin and the appointments are in the hands of a very accommodating Government. Dr. Deshmukh said that, "if the Education Minister had any self-respect in him, he must say that these British I. M. S. men shall not have anything to do with the medical education in the province." Sir Siddappa Tottappa Kambli is hardly the man to do that: The Medical Union and the public will have to rely on other men and means to vindicate the rights of Indians in the Medical Service and of independent Indian Medical men.

A Lesson For Muslims

The interview that Professor A. M. Moulvi gave to our representative regarding his impressions of Iran is a clear and impressive account of social and educational progress in that country. It is an account which deserves serious attention specially on the part of Indian Muslims who are being stampeded by so-called "leaders" into a confusing wilderness of imaginary rights, dangers and so on. Iran, so long regarded as backward, has found the right way to progress. She has abolished purdah and placed woman on the footing of equality with man, in the social, educational economic and political life of the nation. She has seriously set about educating the Youth of in a manner which will amply repay emulation. She has separated religion from that most dangerous and sinister of parasites, fanaticism, and she has arranged to teach religion as it ought to be taught and to explain it as it ought to be understood. Nor is she neglecting patriotism, love of country, a sense of democracy and the like which ought to constitute the very foundation of a country's life. The backward country of a few years ago will have achieved a proud position in the modern world in another few years. Why? Because Iran is free, rid of foreign domination. Muslims have to learn a lesson from Iran and Turkey. That lesson is that progress and prosperity depend, first and foremost, upon freedom from foreign domination. These countries also show that the "rights" which Indian Muslims are called upon to consider as fundamental and for which they are invited to sabotage the struggle for freedom have nothing to do with communal or National progress.

Swadeshi

Opening the Industries Fair in Bombay on Friday, Mr. M. R. Jayakar made out a strong case for the rapid industrialisation of the country with the joint efforts of the public and the State. The attitude of the public towards Swadeshi is unmistakable. Mr. Jayakar knows how many have even gone to jail for their Swadeshi propaganda. He knows well, too, what precious little Government have done or are doing to promote Swadeshi. If he expects better help from provincial Governments under the new regime, he will soon enough realise within what extremely small limits those Governments can help industries when the Government of India, who dominate the field, seem inclined to give less and less protection to Indian industries and more concerned to safeguard British interests.

Mr. Jayakar rightly stressed the importance of fostering village industries and we are happy to note he supports the policy of the Village Industries Association. One of the foremost village industries is the Khaddar industry and everybody knows how indifferent, if not hostile, Government have been towards it. We emphasise Government's indifference in this respect mainly to show that the people should make amends by practising Swadeshi almost religiously. Industrial exhibitions like the one opened by Mr. Jayakar, can do much to promote Swadeshi, especially if they give prominence to the products of village industries.

FROM ACROSS THE SEAS

Gleaning From The World Press

(By OUR LONDON CORRESPONDENT).

Science is wonderful. The latest medical invention enables heart-beats to be heard, permanently recorded and "played back" like an ordinary gramophone record.

The apparatus is called a phono-stethograph and is the result of research in the King's College Hospital Medical School, London. It consists of a chest piece, somewhat like the old-fashioned stethoscope carried by Victorian doctors connected to ear-phones and fitted with amplifying and recording devices and a loudspeaker.

Although the idea is not entirely new—experiments were first made to this end as long as 1856—it is the first completely successful apparatus of its kind. The record gives a clear and faithful reproduction of the heart sounds. Soon a patient may be able to consult his favourite family doctor, when they are hundreds of miles apart.

There are so many rumours in England going around where the new Duke of Windsor and his future bride are going to spend their honeymoon that one is, to say the least, slightly flummoxed.

We heard a good one during the week. A bright lad swore, quite solemnly, to us that he had "inside information" (why is information always inside?) that the happy couple were going to Tunis, of all places, and that house there had already been taken. Of course, quite frankly speaking nobody bothers whether they go to Zanzibar or Wikiki. Yet there are some people who can think of nothing else. In some circles, we hear, the number of possible places, having grown to such a size, a sweepstake has been organised. They are waiting frantically for the result.

The combine has £72,000,000 capital and pays £5,500,000 a year in dividends on it, but the really interesting part of the report is the revelation of the firm's vast activities. Most of us know that it deals in chemicals, dyes, fertilisers, ammunition, explosives, cement, plaster, paint, and that it gets petrol from coal. It also makes lightning fasteners, plastic material for false teeth, and washing soda crystals sold in two-penny packets.

Having declared a record profit of £9,000,000 for the Company, of which he is the chairman, Lord McGowan went to Glasgow in order to keep an appointment which is nearer to his heart than any business transaction. The appointment was duly kept on Saturday (April 17) at Hampden Park, where, in the presence of a record crowd, Scotland met England at football.

Lord McGowan is one of those Scots who have the Association football bug in their blood. In his case, it dates from the days of his Glasgow youth, when watching football was the only recreation for poor boys in the grim city. And since then he has rarely missed an England-Scotland international in Glasgow. Nowadays he watches the match from the main stand with a cigar in his mouth, but the always picks out the corner on the vast slopes where as a boy in a cloth cap he paid his six pence for his first match.

A correspondent from Rome has written a letter which casts a revealing light upon the way in which Italian Fascism is "bringing civilisation to Abyssinia".

Italian commercial circles, she writes, are determined to unload on Abyssinia all their most inferior goods, goods which, in fact, can only be described as waste and rubbish. The old stocks of the Italian department stores are being cleared out for this purpose. As an example she cites the case of publishing firm after firm who are sending to Abyssinia all the stuff, more rubbishly than usual, they cannot sell at home. Apparently the new Italian slogan is "Anything is good enough for Abyssinia."

News About Spain

From Our London Correspondent

Government's Treatment Of Rebel Prisoners

(By Air Mail.)

VALENCIA—A decree with regard to the treatment of prisoners of War has been issued by the Republican Government. It states first that the Government is well aware that there are many loyal Spaniards in Franco's territory, who were surprised and overcome by the revolt. Many of these loyal Spaniards, it goes on to say, have been forced to serve in the rebel army. Those who desert to our lines must be welcomed. The soldiers who fight in defence of the Republic must not forget that while on the battlefield violence is justified and necessary; when the battle is over the lives of the prisoners who have fallen into our hands are sacred. Only the legally constituted Tribunals can pronounce sentence on the enemies of the Republic. The following two decrees have therefore been passed:

Article 1. The lives of the Fascist soldiers, Spanish or foreign, must be respected. The men must be handed over without loss of time, to the competent authorities, and no action can be taken against them without the agreement of the Council of Justices.

Article 2. When combatants from the rebel camp pass over to our lines voluntarily, in addition to their lives being respected, an enquiry must be opened upon them. If their loyalty to the Republican Government is proved, the Government will recognise all their rights, privileges, and offices, as much in civil life as in military.

Protecting Children

VALENCIA.—The Republican Government is doing everything in its power to protect Spanish children from Fascist aerial bombardments. The Spanish Embassy in Paris is also working on this question, and an official there states: "Thousands of Spaniards have fled from their homes—threatened by Fascists—to loyal territory. So much so that it can safely be said that 75 per cent of the Spanish people live in regions controlled by the Government. This concentration creates great difficulties which are being solved both by Government effort and by the adoption of children by private families. The question now, in view of the bombardment of towns from air and sea, consists in the decentralisation and improvement of the situation of these children, and seeing that they are settled where they will be able to study and enjoy sunshine and play.

In the Embassy several petitions have been received from European and American States, asking for these children to be adopted. Many children have been sent to these States but the costs are too great a drain on the funds collected for the children. In addition, it is better that they remain in Spain, their own country. The Spanish Government intends to build all over Spain model towns for the children. The project is supported by groups belonging to different foreign countries, and there is every hope that the people of the world will help in this humanitarian work.

Organisation Of Agriculture

VALENCIA.—Not only the Ministry of Agriculture, but also the great trades union organisations, have done much to develop the rice-growing industry in Spain. Farmers are supposed to be averse to trade unions, but the Valencia farmers welcome the activities of the Federation Sindical Arrocera (Rice Growers' Union). This year the Federation bought more than half a million kilos of rice suitable for seed, saving it from being sold as food, and distributed it to the farmers. The seed was carefully cleaned and all of bad quality eliminated before being distributed to the farmers. The Federation paid 43 pesetas per 100 kilos for the grain, and sold it for fifty. No profit was taken—the seven pesetas difference covering the cost of carriage, cleaning and selection. The farmers are more than pleased with their bargain. About 191,000 acres in Valencian (more than one third of all the soil cultivated in the Valencian Province) have this year been sown with rice.

The Ministry of Agriculture's Rice Station at Sueca carries out important work for the farmers. The Station contains a comprehensive reference library and a laboratory. Information on agricultural problems is carefully collected and indexed. Experiments are made with the view of improving the quality of the rice. The farmers follow the advice issued by this station and frequently ask for assistance in connection with their own problems.

This close co-operation between Government, Trades Union, and Farmers has meant that, in the middle of war-time the production of food has not been hindered. The farmers are working as hard to help to win the war as the soldiers who are in the front line.

Revolt Among Rebels

ANDUJAR.—According to information given by deserters who are constantly streaming into the Government lines on the Cordon front, a serious revolt has broken out amongst rebel officers at Granada.

The revolt was so serious that the authorities were obliged to send up a 'plane, manned by officers of whose loyalty they could be sure, to bomb the new barracks at Granada, built by the insurgents shortly before the last offensive on the Cordova front. Details of this revolt show that it is analogous to the recent revolts in Spanish Morocco. It is certain that the rebel officers are seething with discontent over the foreign invasion of Spain, and in the light of the news of the revolt at Granada, the manifesto issued by the officers of the General Staff of the Republican army, to the rebel officers, takes on a new significance. This manifesto, which is being dropped in thousands of leaflets by Government 'planes over the enemy lines, was signed by General Miaja and numerous Republican officers. It lays stress upon the fact that foreign nations are intervening in Spain and eulogises the patriotism of those of General Franco's officers who have revolted against him at the mere idea that Spain might become a colony of Germany and Italy. The manifesto continues:

"You believe that Madrid is being defended exclusively by Russians; if that is so, how many Russian prisoners have you taken? We have no Russian soldiers here but plenty of Spanish volunteers who fight the foreign divisions which you have led here. We are satisfied to be Spaniards, animated by a love of Spain."

The manifesto then recalls the Government's promise to treat all prisoners and deserters humanely, and invites insurgent officers, to come over to the Gov-

FRANKLY SPEAKING

WHAT ABOUT FRONTIER?

We are glad that Lord Plymouth "on behalf of the British Government" has appealed to both parties in Spain to renounce entirely the use of bombing from the air. The destruction of Guernica has shocked the conscience even of Edens and Plymouths. And naturally so. The bombing was so particularly horrible and brutal that no human being, save those responsible directly or indirectly for that diabolical atrocity, could help feeling revolted by it. We do not know if the insurgents will agree to the proposal, but it is something that the British Government have realised that "bombing from the air" is so inherently brutal that it should be "entirely renounced." But the question is: does this commendably humanitarian altruism apply to the British Empire also—we are, of course, thinking of bombings on the North-West Frontier—or is its applicability strictly confined to others?

INDIA AND ITALY.

We are glad that India's protests against the fascistic treatment meted out by Italy to the Indian firm of Mahomedally and Co. has produced some good results. The Italian Government have, we learn, given all possible liberty and facilities to the firm to carry out liquidation, to withdraw their employees and to export proceeds of liquidation from Abyssinia. But the British Government and the Government of India are emphatically wrong in suggesting that the question of retaliation is now disposed of. The facts remain that Italy has expelled the firm because it is Indian, and that, she has imposed on all Indian traders the obligation of dealing in Italian goods only. It is these facts which challenge retaliation. If Italy has exercised sovereign rights in such a manner India must reciprocate in a similar manner "her" sovereign rights. It may be that, shall we say, larger interests of the "Empire" are better served by submission. But with India it should be a matter of principle, of honour. Unfortunately, the Government of India do not seem to be concerned with India's honour and interests.

HAYASHI IN DIFFICULTIES

We are glad that General Hayashi the "Army" Premier of Japan is not having things in his own way. In fact it almost appears that the challenge which he threw up the other day not only to the old parties but to the system of Government by popularly elected representatives has been taken up by the politicians with an agreeably surprising spirit. He is unable even to form his Cabinet, every politician he approached having refused. So far as agressive imperialism is concerned the difference between the army and the politicians is, as we said sometime ago, only one of degree. But the check to the growing influence of the Army is nevertheless welcome. Incidentally the attitude of Imperialist, semi-Fascist politicians of Japan in refusing to defy the will of democracy compares favourably, does it not, with some of our own politicians who have rushed to the rescue of British Governors.

A WORLD FIGURE.

In proposing that the Municipal Corporation of Rangoon should accord a civic reception to Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the mover of the resolution remarked that the Pandit "is as great a figure as Stalin, Mussolini, Hitler and De Valera". Jawaharlal might feel embarrassed at being bracketted with men like Hitler. But he is certainly one of those world figures whose influence and popularity Kings and Viceroys may envy. In deciding to honour such a person the Rangoon Corporation honoured itself and so did the Anglo-Burman group in supporting the resolution. Mr. J Motron of the European Group, who opposed it, only betrayed the Group's petty-mindedness and racial prejudice.

FOREIGN EDUCATIONAL SCHEME

Many young Indians have been going abroad for higher education. Not all of them, however, can afford the heavy expenses, and even those well provided with funds often find it difficult to make proper arrangements for themselves in their stay abroad. The difficulties of both these classes of students will, it is claimed, be solved to a great extent by the Foreign Educational Scheme put into operation by the Indo-Burma Trading Company. The Company claims to have halved the expenses necessary for a foreign tour, and they undertake to make all arrangements for one year's stay in England with passage, etc. for the sum of Rs. 2,000. Besides this, they state they have made satisfactory arrangements for the boarding and lodging of their clients in England, and have appointed a special medical board of Indian doctors to look after their health.

JAPANESE BUSINESS MISSION FOR BRITAIN

China May Be Centre Of Discussions

Tokio, (By Air Mail.)

The Japanese economic mission of ten which is to visit the United States and Great Britain sailed from Yokohama on April 28 in the 'Tatsuta Maru' for San Francisco.

The mission is headed by Mr. Chokiuro Kadono, a leading businessman who was one of the delegates to the World Economic Conference in 1933.

After stating that adjustment of trade relations with America should be fairly easy, and that agreement might be reached regarding a reciprocal tariff, the 'Asahi Shimbun' commenting on the mission's chances, says that trade relations between Britain and Japan are complicated and competitive in nature, though most important.

The newspaper expects the Mission, however, to do its best to harmonize Anglo-Japanese trade relations from the broad long-term point of view, with the Chinese problem as the centre of discussions.—Reuter.

Their Majesties' Surprise Visit To Westminister Abbey

LONDON: May 10.

Their Majesties paid a surprise visit to the Abbey this afternoon for a Coronation rehearsal The queen smiled and waved to the big cheering crowd. The Dukes of Gloucester and Kent also arrived and the rehearsal of the Royal processions to the Coronation theatre took place. The Archbisnop of Canterbury wore a cope of purple and gold.

THICK CROWDS.

When the Bishop of Norwich arrived he had a squeeze through the crowd. Many distinguished participants in the rehearsal arrived at the wrong doors and had to be redirected. Several Peers and Peeresses carried boxes or cases containing their robes. The crowd pressed forward to catch glimpses of the interior and one of the canopies of silver and gold cloth on four silver pillars, which is being used for the annointing ceremony on Wednesday. The boys of the Chapels Royal arrived in cars. The Lord Chancellor and Dominion representatives also attended. A car carrying the Duchess of Northumberland, who is the Queen's Mistress of the Robes, had strapped to the top a large white cardboard box, which was carried into the Abbey.

After the rehearsal the Gold Staff officers remained behind for further instruction in their duties.

Foreign Royalties In London

Entertained By King And Queen At Buckingham Palace

LONDON, May 10.

Coronation day weather may be showery but experts refuse to give a definite prediction yet.

Foreign Royal visitors for the Coronation have mostly arrived. The court circular chronicles the arrival at Buckingnam Palace of the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Norway, the Count of Flanders, Princess and Prince of Netherlands, Prince-Regent and Princess Paul of Yugoslavia, the Crown Prince of Rumania, the Crown Prince of Greece, Prince Ernest Augustus of Hanover, and Prince Frederick of Prussia.

The Queen of Norway, Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Denmark, and Prince Nicholas of Greece are already there.

Princess Juliana and Prince Bernhard had an enthusiastic welcome from a large crowd when they arrived at Liverpool street station and were greeted by Prince Arthur of Connaught. Princess Juliana in chic appearnce posed for photographers without a trace of shyness which marked her last visit to England and waved to the crowd

The Dutch national anthem was spontaneously sung as the visitors drove away. The Duke of Connaught who spent the winter at Bath and Bournemouth arrived in London from Bournemouth by train in a special coach and drove to Clarence House at St. James's—Reuter

INDIAN SOLDIERS FOR TELEVISION

LONDON, May 10.

Buckingham Palace was to-day the focus of Coronation sightseers.

As finally arranged, 300 officers and men of the Indian contingent will be in Wednesday's procession, of whom 45 will be mounted. The remainder of the contingent will have one of the best sites from where they will witness the cavalcade, as it is massing at the steps of the Victoria Memorial in Front of Buckingham Palace. In order to meet the needs of the contingent special mess tents have been erected in Green Park and arrangements made for Indian restaurants to provide suitable food. Similar commissariat arrangements will be made on the 14th when the contingent will march to Buckingham Palace to receive medals from the hands of the King.

This afternoon the Indian contingent gave a tea party at Hampton Court Camp, when Lord Zetland was the principal guest. The "Indus" complement, which yesterday entertained numerous official guests aboard the Indus, joined in with the contingent.

Two Viceroy's commissioned officers, in response to many requests from interested public, have consented to journey to Alexandra Park to submit themselves to the ordeal of television.

The Crown Prince and Princess of Sweden arrived at St. Pancras Station, London and were met by the Duke of Gloucester.

A lunch was given at the Savoy Hotel to the members of the Imperial Conference by the federation of Chambers of Commerce of the British Empire.—Reuter.

INDIAN CONTINGENT AT WINDSOR

LONDON, May 10.

The Indian Contingent visited the royal farms at Windsor this morning where many famous stud and prize-winning beasts were paraded for inspection by Mr. Alex Ritchie, the King's agent.

ONLY DISAPPOINTMENT

During their stay in England the Contingent has had but one minor disappointment; and that the singular absence of goats. All efforts made by the authorities to provide male goats on hoof have been abortive and the contingent has been eating prize English lamb. As the Contingent's coaches passed through a village on the way to Windsor, they saw a solitary goat tethered on the village green. The animal was lustily cheered. Yesterday from the recesses of hilly Wales came a telephoned offer of twenty goats, which was accepted. The animals are now on the train for Hampton Court. The appeal for goats has brought responses from Scotland and elsewhere.

DOMINION TROOPS HONOURED

The Australian troops, wearing their familiar slouch hats, mounted guard at Buckingham Palace and St. James' this morning, Mr. Lyons and General Cheval, commanding the Contingent, awaited their coming but owing to the rain the ceremonial changing of the guard was cancelled. Everyone participating actively in the Coronation ceremony attended the final rehearsal in the Abbey to-day. A crowd waited hours in the rain to watch the arrival but there was no pageantry or procession outside the Abbey, though the full service was rehearsed. The crowd gave Mr. Baldwin a tremendous ovation.—Reuter.

JEWS UNITE FOR CORONATION SERVICE

Chief Rabbi Bursts Into Flattery Of British Rule

LONDON, May 10.

For the first time in their history all sections of the English jewry—orthodox, liberal and reform—met last evening in one Synagogue brought together by the Coronation.

The occasion was a united service of Thanksgiving in the Great Synagogue at Aldgate. The service was according to ancient Hebrew ritual and a special player was offered for the King and the Royal Family. The Chief Rabbi, Dr. Hertz declared that Britain was the world's strongest hope against "the normal barbarism of political doctrines which deny that common humanity is the bond between man and man and wage war on democratic institutions and organised religion."—Reuter.

Railway authorities do not give satisfactory reply to redress our grievances the Pan and Kela Merchants' Association should continue to close the Hol Bhat Market on 11th, 12th and 13th of May as a protest and the Committee appointed in the previous meeting held on 6th May should finally settle with other railways to transport their goods on terms and conditions to be hereafter settled".

Municipal Corporation

Increase In General Tax Foreshadowed

Commissioner's Proposal To Meet Scheme Of Living Wage To Workers

The proposal to fix the minimum salary of the Municipal employees at Rs. 30 per month is following its tortuous course in the various bodies of the Bombay Municipality.

BACK TO COMMISSIONER.

It will be recalled that the proposal was first brought up nearly a year ago, by Mr. M. R. Masani and Mr. Meherally. It had already been sent to the Standing Committee twice before and on both occasions the Committee had thrown out the proposal. But the Municipal Corporation at its meeting held on May 3 had again resolved to send it back to the Standing Committee for reconsideration. The Committee at its meeting, held on Monday, resolved to refer it to the Commissioner for his remarks.

The Difficulty

It is understood that there are certain difficulties in the way of this proposal being adopted. One is the case of the employees who get daily wages. Secondly, if the pay of the menials is raised, a situation might arise when the Matriculated School-teacher gets less pay than the School peon.

Increase In General Tax

However, the Commissioner is willing to put up a scheme, if the Corporation agrees, to a rise in the General Tax to meet the extra expenditure that will have to be incurred, if the scheme is to be adopted

That in view of the fact that the Corporation have been unable to provide adequate funds for Band and other musical performances at the various Municipal band-stands and public gardens, the Commissioner be requested to consider and report on the desirability of installing radio set at each of these band-stands and public gardens so that the public may resort to these places of recreation provided for them.

Mr. Wagh said the question of finance did not stand in the way of his proposition as hardly Rs. 3,000 will be required to instal a dozen radio sets at the open places to which people resort for recreation and the band stands. In the present year budget a provision is made for Rs. 2,000 for all the open spaces in the city and Rs. 700 only for the Victoria Gardens. Under the circumstances not more than three programmes would be arranged for the whole year in any of the municipal gardens or band-stand. If radio sets were installed the public would have music at all open places and the cost would be only Rs. 3,000 all throughout the year.

Dr. U. Mascarhenas seconded the proposition and it was carried unanimously.

BEGGAR NUISANCE.

The House also agreed to the resolution of Mr. M. A. Dabholkar to invite the attention of the representatives of the Corporation on the G. I. P. and the B. B. and C. I. Railway Local Advisory Committee to an appalling increase in the number of beggars travelling in the suburban trains causing annoyance to the third class passengers and they be requested to take up the matter with their respective Advisory Committees, so as to prevail upon the Railway authorities to take stringent measures to eradicate the nuisance from the trains and to report to the Corporation the action taken by the Railway authorities in the matter."

Mr. D. G. Khairaz explained that this question was considered by Advisory Committee of the B. B. and C. I. Railway. The Agent explained that since the beggars issued tickets and season tickets it was difficult to prosecute them unless some complaints were received from the passengers.

The Mayor then adjourned the House till the middle of June and intimated that he would on behalf of the Corporation send a message of congratulations expressing their loyalty and respect to Their Majesties the King and the Queen on their Coronation.

ADDRESSES TO GOVERNORS

Radio Sets At Gardens And Band-Stands

Within eight minutes two resolutions regarding presentation of addresses to the outgoing and incoming Governors, were passed by the Municipal Corporation on Monday.

The Nationalist Group raised an opposition by putting two of its members to oppose, and the resolutions were put to vote right away, both the resolutions being carried by an overwhelming majority.

RADIOS AT BAND-STANDS.

The House also agreed to the resolution of Mr. P. W. Wagh regarding installing of the radio sets on public band-stands and open spaces.

Mr. Meyer Nissim moved the resolution for giving an address to Lord Brabourne, the retiring Governor of Bombay.

Mr. Meyer Nissim said through Lord Brabourne'c good offices Rs. seven lakhs and a half were given to city hospitals from the Governor's Hospitals Fund which enabled them to increase 150 beds in their hospitals. During labour troubles and riots he was always ready to render help by removing misunderstandings.

Prof. V. G. Rao seconded the resolution.

EXPENSIVE FORMALITY.

Mr. S. K. Patil opposed the resolution stating that it smacked of inferiority complex. If the Governor did something for the local self-Government, they might appreciate in a suitable way but to present an address because a Governor arriving or departing was a formality, which they should now dispensed with, as it was a waste of money to do so.

As no other councillor spoke on the question, it was put to vote and declared carried by a large majority by show of hands.

Sir J B. Boman Behram then moved the resolution for giving an address to Mr. Lawrence Roger Lumley, Governor-Designate of Bombay, on his arrival in Bombay.

Mr. S. C. Khambata seconded the resolution.

NO MONEY TO SQUANDER.

Mr. Nagindas T. Master opposed the resolution and said though India was hospitable, it was not necessary to squander money on the presentation of addresses.

The resolution was put to vote and carried by a large majority.

RADIOS FOR PUBLIC.

Mr. P. W. Wagh then moved:

ALLAHABAD, May 10.

Syed Muzafar Husain informs the Associated Press that the press reports regarding the gathering of Congress-minded Muslims on May 15 and 16 have been somewhat misleading. It is intended that Congress-minded Muslims should come together on May 15th and 16th with a view to discuss the present political situation and various problems confronting them as a group. LIBERAL'S TIP TO CONGRESS

What Assurance Congress Demanded Is There In Substance!

MADRAS, May 10.

"The demand of the "assurance that the Congress made has in substance been complied with. That it has not been conveyed in the set formula does not detract from its otherwise satisfactory character in removing the apprehensions entertained by the Congress," says Mr. T. R. Venkatarama Sastri in a statement to the press.

SAID ON MISUNDERSTANDING.

Mr. Sastri adds: "I am not aware of the advantage of a more definite or formal assurance from the Governor, in that it will immediately create an atmosphere of mutual trust and confidence, in which the new Legislature and Executive Government will begin their work. If the Governor will not, for any reason, give such further assurance the Congress, in my opinion, should not refuse to enter on its legitimate duty. The insistence on dismissal in preference to resignation, with all deference to those who insist on it, appears to me to be based on a misunderstanding and requires further consideration.

"In each case the point of difference which led to the resignation or dismissal will be the subject of appeal to the opinion of the cuntry. So long as public opinion is with the ministers, how does the consequence vary according as this is resignation or dismissal?"

"In the consciousness of this strength that they possess", concludes Mr. Sastri, "the Congress should now go in and shoulder the burden of Government in the interests of the people."—A. P.

ILL-TREATMENT OF JOURNALIST

Protest Against Sergeants' Behaviour

(From Our Correspondent)

POONA: (By Mail).

Consequent upon the alleged ill-treatment of some of the journalists working at the Sonya Maruti Temple by some of the police officials, especially the European Sergeants, on duty at the spot, an emergent meeting of all the journalists met on the morning of May 9, under the presidency of Mr. G. V. Ketkar, Editor of the "Maharatha" and passed the following resolutions unanimously:

This meeting of all the working journalists in Poona called under the auspices of the Poona Press Reporters' Association, deeply regrets the attitude taken by some of the police officials on duty at the Sonya Maruti Temple and while strongly protesting against this desires to bring the same to the notice of the higher authorities, who are requested to institute proper inquiries into the matter and issue proper instructions to all the police officials on duty at the spot.

The meeting further cites as a specific case in this respect, the case of Mr. B. N. Thakore, a journalist on the staff of "Trikal", who was abused by Sergeant Woodenbury at about 6 p.m. on Saturday the 8th instant. Mr. Thakore, while he was performing his journalistic duties, unobtrusively, was asked by Sergeant Woodenbury to move away, and on the former's telling him that he was there as a journalist working for his paper was greeted with filthy abusive language deriding journalists in general.

This meeting authorises the President of the meeting to forward this resolution to the proper authorities and to take any steps that might be deemed necessary for the redress of the grievance mentioned therein.

ACCIDENTS TO RAILWAY STAFF

"Safety First" Booklet To Be Issued

SIMLA, May 9.

Steps to reduce the accidents occurring among Railway staff throughout India are under consideration by a special Sub-Committee of the Indian Railway Conference Association and an important meeting of the Committee has just been held in Simla.

The issue of a comprehensive "Safety First" Booklet for the guidance of all grades of railwaymen with suitable illustrations of the more common accidents was discussed For the lower-paid staff, the railways may, in future, consider the translation of these booklets into vernaculars. The final recommendations of the Sub-Committee will probably be submitted to the October Conference of the Indian Railway Conference Association.—United Press.

THE THREE MUSKETEERS

D'ARTAGNAN ATTACKS AGAIN

The beautiful lady in the carriage looked in surprise at the approaching D'Artagnan and turned to the nobleman saying, 'But are you not going to chastise this insolent boy first?"

The unknown was about to reply D'Artagnan, who had heard the question darted towards them and shouted. "No. I am the one to do the chastising."

The gentleman put his hand to his sword, but milady cried, "Remember that the slightest delay may spoil everything!"

"That is true," exclaimed the nobleman. "Begone then and I shall depart on my way," and nodding goodbye to the lady he leaped up on his horse. The gentleman and lady parted and dashed down the street at full gallop in opposite directions.

IMPOTENT RAGE

"You coward, you craven!" shouted D'Artagnan starting to rush after the horseman and his servant, but his strength failed him. His head was swimming and he collapsed on the roadway still shouting, "You coward, You craven; despicable wretch!"

The innkeeper had now arrived hurriedly on the scene, and endeavouring to calm D'Artagnan managed once more to get him back to his kitchen. D'Artagnan demanded wine, oil, and rosemary in order to prepare according to his mother's recipe the wonderful balsam for his numerous wounds. But when about to pay the innkeeper, he discovered that though his little velvet purse was still safely in the pocket of his doublet his letter for M. de Treville had disappeared.

CIVIL HOSPITAL AT ANDHERI

Committee Of Management Will Run It

(From Our Correspondent)

ANDHERI: Sunday.

The scheme for the proposed Civil Hospital and Dispensary at Andheri was almost fully thrashed out last night when a joint meeting of the Vile Parle Municipality, the District Local Board, the donor and the Government authorities, considered the clauses of the proposed scheme and passed it over for a final approval by all concerned. The District Local Board was represented by its president Mr. C. D. Barfiwala, the donor by his solicitor Mr. Kapadia and the Government authority by Captain D'Silva, the Civil Surgeon of Thana.

Under the proposed scheme it is contemplated to construct a fresh building out of a donation of Rs. 80,000 on the present site of the Wadia Charitable Dispensary at Andheri which is being run by the District Local Board. The Dispensary and the Hospital will be amalgamated into one unit and will be run by a Committee of Management. The District Local Board, the Vile Parle Municipality and the trustees of the Wadia Charities will be equally represented on the Committee and the donor and the Civil Surgeon of Thana will also be allowed representation.

It has been estimated that the cost of running the dispensary and the hospital would amount to about Rs. 14,000 a year and it is proposed to meet the cost by having a contribution of Rs. 4,500 from the Municipality, Rs. 3,000 from the District Local Board, Rs. 3,000 from the Government and Rs. 3,500 from the donor.

PARLE'S REPRESENTATION.

The Vile Parle Municipality will be considered as the Local Authority for the purpose of Management of the affairs of the Hospital. The Vile Parle Municipality has agreed to participate in the scheme on the above terms and it has adopted a resolution requesting the Collector to call a joint meeting of all concerned at an early date so as to enable them to draw out a final agreement. A Committee consisting of Mr. Ceaser D'Mello, Mr. G. R. Desai, Mr. S. N. Kalbag, Dr. Bhatt and Mr. Gokuldhai Bhatt have been appointed to represent the Municipality and carry on negotiations in the matter.

Earlier in the day the Municipal Board considered a representation from Mr. Vaidya and others suggesting the construction of an overbridge at the corner of Nehru Road and Church Road instead of the one by the side of the foot bridge existing at the station and recorded it.

'PARLA PRESIDENT PLEADS FOR TIME

Heckled In Meeting Over Bridge Controversy Papers

VILE PARLE, Monday.

(From Our Correspondent)

A fresh turn in the 'Parla overbridge and tangle was sought to be given when Mr. K. K. Vaidya and others reques for a bridge to join Nehru Road and the Church Road was recorded by the Vile Parle Municipality at its special general meeting held on Saturday last in the Municipality's office.

Mr. Caesar De Mello was in the Chair. The whole meeting was a dull affair but for the illuminating questions that Mr. Gomes the vice-President put to the President to clarify certain points. Some of the members were complaining that papers relevant to the day's agenda were not available, hence Mr. Gome's searching questions, in reply to which the President pleaded for time.

Mr. Gomes asked the President whether any correspondence has been addresed to the Collector by him in regard to the important items before the Municipality and also whether the Collector of the Suburban District has addressed him any communication to enlighten him on the bridge questions.

To both of these inquiries came an affirmative reply from the Chair. He further added that the file in this connection was lying with the Collector for his reference.

Mr. Gomes shot out another query whether the Collector had asked for the official file and the same was sent under instruction. This query was so unexpected and sudden that the President asked for a week's time to go through the details of the question. He is now expected to make a statement in this regard at the Board's next meeting.

Mr. Gomes raised another question and asked the President whether it was a fact that to the time the Commissioner Mr. Garret, visited this office, a Counseller said to him during the conversation that the donor to the hospital building Mr. Bhabha, believes that the Municipality is incompetent to deal with the administration of the hospital and he would not favour entrusting the work to it.

The President said that the question did not arise at all. Moreover he had not heard it in the way in which it was put.

The question of the hospital and munificent donation was not taken up and was left to the Sub-Committee consisting of the President, Mr. Kalbag, Messrs. G D Bhatt, G R Desai and Dr. Bhatt for their report.

THIS EVIL MUST BE CHECKED

(From Our Correspondent)

BARODA: (By Mail).

It is reported from Sidhpur that poor masses are troubled by the Pathan moneylenders and in some cases the wives and sisters are forced to lead a life of slaves to repay these debts and hence there is some necessity of checking this evil. The practice of "Chotalakhat" (keeping women in manual service in lieu of debts, i.e., mortgage), ought to be abolished.)

NEWS ABOUT SPAIN

Matadors Help Republic

VALENCIA.—Bull-fighters are still occasionally to be seen in Spain, but only at rare intervals, for there is a great dearth of expert matadors, most of whom have more important work to do now than killing bulls.

The last bull-fight seen at the arena here took place a few weeks ago for a war charity, when Vicente Varrera, the well-known matador, killed six bulls in the arena in the presence of 20,000 enthusiastic people. In Franco's Spain there have also been a few bull-fights for charity, since the civil war began, but they have been few and far between and are becoming rarer than ever. Most of the well-known Spanish bull-fighters have remained loyal to the Government and most of them have taken part in benefit fights for the militia or other funds—such as the subscriptions for building a new "Komsomol" (the Russian boat sunk by the rebels). Some of them, Enrique Torres, for example, are fighting at the front, all the rest are doing useful work in the rearguard. Juan Belmonte, one of the most famous of Spanish bull-fighters, was caught in Seville when the rebellion began. Belmonte had always been well-known for his liberal ideas. The rebels immediately searched his home. A book of poems, autographed by the late Luis De Tapia, the popular poet, was found there. This was enough Belmonte was put in gaol, and though some of the rebels clamoured for his death, he was eventually "let off" with a fine of 50.000 pesetas

The well-known bull-fighter, Miguel Palomino, was the president of the Society of Matadors when the revolt broke out, and he at once summoned a meeting of his colleagues and urged them to fight for the Republic. Many, though they risked their lives every day in the arena, were filled with panic at the thought of confronting bullets rather than bulls, but Palomino succeeded in persuading forty-eight 'novilleros' (young, not full-fledged bull-fighters) to enlist in the Fifth Regiment, which was the first organised and militarised regiment which the Republican Army possessed. Palomino and his companions were sent to Somosieera and took part in the heavy fighting there. Many of them have fallen, but Palomino carries on with as much enthusiasm as ever, has proved his courage hundreds of times and has risen to the rank of Major, or what used to be called 'Commander'

Those Italian Volunteers

TURIN.—Throughout Italy the common people are opposing, sometimes secretly, sometimes openly, the Duce's invasion of Spain. From Liguria comes the news that Italian sailors brought there to embark on the steamship 'Atlanta' for 'an unknown destination' (in Italy and Germany everyone now realises that these words mean 'Spain') at first firmly refused to sail. They were finally forced to do so by the carabineers In Genoa two sailors of the 'Genearchia' refused to continue with the ship to Majorca, saying they did not want to run the risks of war. Other examples could be given to show the feelings of the sailors on the subject of the Italian invasion of Spain.

It is learnt here that of the 3rd regiment of the famous Bersaglieri only fifty men enrolled for Spain. One of these refused to leave when it dawned upon him that they were bound for Spain. In Naples, in the Brand barracks, a Captain of artillery was ordered by his Colonel to get ready to leave for Spain. He protested that he had made no application for this service, and that he was willing to fight and die in the defence of his country, but not to go to Spain. Twenty-four hours later his rank of Captain was taken from him.

In desperation with the reluctance with which they have been met, the Italian authorities recruiting for Spain have been in some cases, forced to send convicts as 'volunteers' for Spain. Sassucolo is one of the convict prisons from which 'recruits' have been gathered. Two hundred Italian carabineers have just left for Spain, to preserve order among the rebel forces fighting there—and, presumably, to stem the rising flood of desertion. The steam boat 'Zenia' left Sevena recently late because the police authorities discovered a bomb had been placed on board, with the intention of sabotaging the entire cargo being sent to Franco. In spite of the risk of collecting money, and poverty of the Italian people, money is constantly being received in Republican Spain, sent by various groups of Italian workers to help the fight against Fascism. One such letter received read as follows:—

"We workers of Romana, convinced that each blow dealt to Fascism in Spain is a step towards our liberation, have collected and now send you 1,500 lire for the victory of the People's Army against Fascism."

Sihor: Jainacharya Vijay Labdhisuriswari gave Acharyapadvi to his two first two desciple namely Gambhirvijayji and Laxhanvijayji, on 30th April. New names given to them were Vijay Gambhirsurji, and Vijay Laxmansuriji.

"Dixas" also were given to two ladies. New names given were "Mandanshuiji, and Hansashreeji."

Here's News for Stomach Sufferers

A sparkling, bubbling drink that ends Indigestion, Wind, Flatulence and Acidity—Instant relief for Headaches, Colds, Neuralgia.

Ninety per cent of our every day ailments are caused by too much acid in our systems. Scientists tell us that to keep well and healthy, our bodies must be slightly more alkaline than acid. Careless habits of eating, late hours, rich food, lack of exercise, overwork, over-indulgence, all lead to excess acidity. Then, the power of resistance is lowered and we become an easy prey to Indigestion and all sorts of Stomach Troubles, Headaches, Colds, Neuralgia and other common ills.

Now comes a new treatment for excess acidity, "Alka-Seltzer" Tablets. Now, scientists have discovered how to combine in a pleasant refreshing, effervescing form the three essential ingredients doctors have used separately for years.

These "Alka-Seltzer" Tablets are amazing in their results. If you suffer from Indigestion, Wind, Flatulence, Heartburn or Fullness after eating, just drop an "Alka-Seltzer" Tablet in water. Drink it while the bubbles are still sparkling in the glass. Your pain and discomfort will vanish. If you have a Headache you will be astonished how quickly this pleasant, refreshing drink will make it go. Rheumatic Pains, Neuralgia, even the ever present Cold will yield to this new discovery.

You mustn't confuse "Alka-Seltzer" Tablets with the ordinary type of remedy. They are a scientific product—a corrective alkalizing drink which first relieves the pain and then removes the cause. There is nothing so good as "Alka-Seltzer"—nothing to equal it. It is not harmful and not a laxative. Try it to-day.

Any chemist can supply you with "Alka-Seltzer" Brand Tablets.

PATNA BOMB CASE JUDGMENT

Two Get Five Years: Two Acquitted

PATNA, May 10.

Raghu Rambabu and Pannalal were sentenced to five years rigorous imprisonment, and Deokinandan Misra and Harinarayan were acquitted by the additional Sessions Judge, Patna, in what is known as Khajekalam bomb case. The accused, all school students, of Patna City were charged with conspiring to manufacture explosive materials and possessing the same, thereby endangering life and property, and were prosecuted under the Explosive Substance Act.

PROSECUTION STORY

It will be rmembered that an explosion occurred at Khajekalan, Patna City, on July 5th last in which Raghu, one of the accused was injured. Police investigation led to the arrest of the five accused, and prosecution evidence at the preliminary enquiry and sessions trial revealed that they had come under the influence of the revolutionary movement through various sources, one of them being by reading proscribed literature it was alleged that they decided secretly to manufacture explosive substances and also formed themselves into a society and started collecting funds for the purpose.

A vow of loyalty and allegiance to the tenents of the organisation was signed in blood by the accused at a solitary spot across the river Ganges. A desolate house, a few miles outside Patna City belonging to Rambabu was their rendervous where they often went to manufacture bombs, one of which they tested on a dog to see its efficacy. One such bomb exploded in Raghu's house on July 5 last year causing him injuries, following which he was arrested by the Police.

He was also stated to have made a confession before police and the magistrate narrating the course of events leading to the explosion.—A.P.

"Scipione Africano," the first product of Cinelandia, Italy's newly-built Hollywood, is nearing completion. As the season is nearly over, however, it is not likely to be shown in Rome before November.

The story of Scipio Africanus has employed 100 leading actors and actresses, 15,000 soldiers, 2,000 horses and 80 elephants. The 80 elephants represent the exact number of those employed by Hannibal at the battle of Zama, which is the main feature of the film. In that great victory of the Romans over the Carthaginians—one of the decisive battles in history—elephants provided the first major failure of a tank attack.

Short Covering In N. Y. Cotton Market

COMPLAINTS OF DRY LOW TEMPERATURES IN WEST

Spot Cotton Dull With Disappointing Demand

BOMBAY, May 10.

On Saturday there was absence of outside participation on the New York cotton market where business was very small but the technical position was firm on hedging disregardable. 1,300,139 bales of loan cotton have been requested to be released up to 6th May according to the Commodity Credit Corporation.

The New York cotton market opened quiet and was very inactive in the absence of new incentive. Early the session kept steady on some trade and foreign buying but eased on local selling but met short covering. Complaints of dry low temperatures in the West attracted attention. The market opened at a rise of 2 points with October 12.87. and declined 5 points from the opening level and October was quoted 12.82 which was the lowest level. Later on prices advanced 6 points and October was quoted 12.88. Thus prices fluctuated within a narrow range of 6 points and finally closed at a rise of 4 points to unchanged. Spot cotton market was dull with a limited enquiry and closed unchanged at 13.58c per lb.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET

The New Orleans cotton futures market was fairly steady and closed at a rise of 3 points. Spot cotton prices advanced 2 points at 13.40c. per lb.

REUTER'S WEEKLY REVIEW

The cotton market rallied from last week's low levels on moderate covering, price fixing and foreign demand. Speculative interest was restricted despite the waning nervousness after the recent unsettlement of the World markets. Traders were more inclined to watch weather and crop developments, but immediate buying on less favourable conditions last week was counterbalanced by expectations that, with normal growing season, the crop this year would exceed consuming requirements. A slightly improved demand in textiles resulted in moderate price fixing on futures. Recent ideas of acreage increase range from 10 to 13 per cent.

Prospects of increasing competitions from Brazilian and Chinese cotton next season are arousing discussion while English importations of Russian cotton are regarded unfavourably here. Spot markets were quiet and the foreign inquiry was limited to filling in requirements of old crop. Meanwhile, with fresh incentive lacking, continued narrow movements are indicated.

LIVERPOOL MARKET

The Liverpool cotton futures market opened at a decline of 2 points with October 7.20. Business was small. There was some hedging and Continental selling. There was no special features and the market closed at a decline of 2 to 1 point. Middling American Spot cotton prices declined 3 points at 7.42d. per lb.

EGYPTIAN COTTON

There was a limited turnover in Egyptian cotton. Sakels futures closed at a decline of 5 points and Uppers closed one point up.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET

The Alexandria cotton futures market was irregular. Under increased selling Sakels closed 45 to 20 points down while Ashmouni futures were 15 points up to 2 points down.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

Messrs. Reynolds and Gibson state:—There is an impression gaining ground that the political situation on the Continent is easing somewhat and the outlook from a peace point of view is slightly more encouraging. The determination on the part of this country to re-arm to an extent which will render it able to play an effective part in international affairs, and the energy which is being displayed in this direction, are undoubtedly to some extent the cause of the less warlike attitude in various quarters abroad, but the expense of this is clearly demonstrated in the Budget introduced in the House of Commons last night by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. The heavy bill which has to be met this year and still more in succeeding years, has necessitated not only an increase in the Income Tax, but also places burdens on industry which to our mind may easily lead to reduced enterprise. It will undoubtedly fall hard in many directions and cannot be construed as a cheerful or reassuring factor.

FEEBLE ATTEMPTS

Locally, whilst there have been one or two rather feeble attempts towards recovery, the general atmosphere has been lacking in confidence and speculative enterprise is very much dampened by recent events. There is no doubt that business in Manchester, for reasons which we have explained in our last two or three circulars, has shown distinct signs of diminishing for the time being and the market is suffering from a reduced amount of trade support. The continued weakness of the old crop, as compared with next, is also affecting sentiment and, as there is no improvement in the demand for actual cotton, there seems to be no reason to anticipate a change in this tendency and, therefore, it will continue to have a depressing influence on the minds of operators.

The parity between here and the American Exchanges remains much the same as last week except for a widening in the nearer months, due to considerable weakness being displayed by May and July in New York and New Orleans. It seems to us that selling here and buying overseas in next crop options on attractive moments around the existing parity is one of the soundest operations which presents itself and we would suggest watching the situation with the idea of entering into this operation on favourable opportunities.

GOLD AND TARIFF QUESTIONS

Belgian Move

Stocks of raw cotton in Japan are 350,000 bales Indian and 450,000 bales American and with the uncertainty over the formation of the new Cabinet, demand continues negligible despite steadiness in Sampin Speculative demand in America continues to be dormant pending new crop developments though scarcity of contracts is causing a steady tone. With the continuance of loan cotton releases and favourable weather trade demand has tapered off around 13.00 cents for new crops. Following his consultation with representatives of the British, French and German Governments the mission of the Belgian Prime Minister to U. S. A. is being keenly watched and political observers have not yet abandoned hope of a rapproachement between Europe and America over the question of gold, tariffs and war debts but much will depend upon an early termination of the Spanish civil war. For the time being we continue to advise taking profit on all advances with a view to replacing on good setbacks state Messrs. Stern.

TIN CONSUMPTION ANALYSIS

Figures just issued in the April Bulletin of the International Tin Research and Development Council, published by the Hague Statistical Officer, give the world production of tin for the first quarter of the current year as 43,800 tons, against 39,065 tons in the corresponding quarter of 1936. World production for the year ended March 1937 totalled 177,400 tons, against 147,000 tons in the previous twelve months. World consumption statistics are available only up to the end of February, the total for the year ended February 1937 being 160,391 tons, which represents an increase of about 7 1/2 per cent over the figure for the previous year

INCREASE IN IMPORTS

An important increase of over 16 per cent is recorded for tin consumption in U.S.A., where 78,287 tons were used in the year under review. In Russia there was a 38 per cent increase, which places that country third among tin consuming countries, with a record consumption of 10,453 tons. There was a slight decrease in United Kingdom consumption, from 22,113 tons in the year ended February 1936 to 21,627 tons in the year ended February 1937. Consumption in Germany decreased by nearly 8 per cent., and in Italy by about 57 per cent. Among countries in which consumption increased substantially are France, with a 23 per cent increase, Japan 31 per cent., Czechoslovakia 32 per cent., Belgium 23 per cent and Poland 42 per cent. In the following table is shown the tin consumption of the principal countries for the year ended February 1937, in comparison with the consumption for the previous year. The figures are expressed in tons of 2,240 lb.

	Year ended 1937	February 1936	p.c. increase or decrease
U. S. A.	78,287	67,341	+ 16.3
United Kingdom	21,327	22,113	— 2.2
U. S. S. R.	10,453	7,564	+ 38.2
France	10,269	8,339	+ 23.1
Germany	9,131	9,902	— 7.8
Other countries	30,624	34,082	— 10.1
Total apparent consumption	160,391	149,341	+ 7.4

TIN CONSUMING INDUSTRIES

The tinplates and automobile industries are contributing very substantially to the increased tin consumption this year. In the year ended February 1937, 62,700 tons of tin were used in the world tinplate industry, against 52,800 tons in the preceding year, while the world motor industry is estimated to have used 13,500 tons, against 11,900 tons in January-February 1937, world production of tinplate amounted to 662,000 tons, against 553,000 tons in January-February 1936, and world production of automobiles in these periods totalled 982,000 vehicles and 863,000 vehicles respectively.

TIN STOCKS AND PRICES

During March 1937, world visible stocks of tin increased by 720 tons to 23,476 tons, representing approximately 15 per cent of the current annual rate of consumption. At the end of March 1936, world stocks stood at 17,336 tons, and their ratio to consumption was 11.6 per cent

The average cash price of standard tin in March 1937 was £283-5-7., as compared with £233-19-8 in February.

Mutton Dealers Give Ultimatum To Muncipality

(From A Correspondent)

An extraordinary general meeting of the members of the Bombay Mutton Dealers' Union was held on Sunday at Bandra in the hall of the Masjid under the presidency of Mr. Karimbhoy Lalbhoy to decide the question of notice served on certain stall-holders by the Municipality.

Mr. Jhabvala the Hon. General Secretary of the Union read out the correspondence that had taken place between the Union and the Municipality in connection with the increased license fee whereafter the following resolutions proposed by him and seconded by Mr. Abdul Aziz were unanimously adopted.

"This meeting of the Bombay Mutton Dealers' Union notes with regret the action of the Bombay Municipality in launching proceedings against several of the Stallholders in the private Markets in spite of repeated requests made by the Stall-holders and protests against such high-handedness of the Municipal authorities which shall compel them to resort to direct action in the matter."

"This meeting of the Bombay Mutton Dealers' Union once again clearly states that no occasion has arisen whatsoever for the Municipality to raise the rates of license fees in Private Markets and that the Stall-holders and Mutton Dealers have reached their extreme limit of expenditure so that no such increase in fees can be paid. Again the Municipality gave no notice whatsoever of increase in license fees which was bound to do under the law which could have left the option to the Mutton Dealers to vacate the stalls or to continue; and now for the Municipality to turn round and make a demand for increased license fees is highly unconstitutional, provocative, unjustifiable and calls for strict notice".

"This meeing of the Bombay Mutton Dealers' Union while meaning no threat to the Municipality and the public of Bombay respectfully informs them both that unless the Municipal authorities cancel the legal proceedings above referred to and also resolution to increase the fees the Mutton Dealers of Bombay shall from 18th day of the month stop all slaughtering of goats and sheep, the responsibility for trouble arising from such action resting solely upon the Municipality".

Kelkar Stages Come-Back As Satyagrahi

TAKEN IN CUSTODY AT POONA TEMPLE

Rings Little Bell In Defiance Of Order

(From Our Correspondent)
POONA, May 10.

Mr. N. C. Kelkar, the veteran Maharashtra politician offered "Satyagraha" before, Sonya Maruti Temple this morning.

He was immediately arrested and taken to Pharashkhana whence he was later released on bail.

Prior to offering "Satyagraha", Mr. Kelkar had addressed the following letter on this subject to Mr. L. B. Bhopatkar in which he says:

"This is just to tell you that I am proceeding immediately to Sonya Maruti Temple to join the 'Satyagraha' movement. I have not told about this to anybody. So far, not even to my own family people.

"I am giving this intimation to yourself alone and that too with such short notice for what I consider to be very good reason, for I don't like crowds to gather to see my Satyagraha and be exposed to lathi charge like the infamous one to which they were subjected on Friday last at the hands of police authorities.

"You know that I was not in Poona when Satyagraha was decided upon or actually commenced.

"I have been, I believe, a fairly law-abiding and peaceful citizen on the whole. I had also decided to retire from public life in a general way. But the anchor of my political consciousness holds.

"I consider that there can be no worse tyranny of official unreason than the special and scandalous order of District Magistrate.

"I am, therefore, proceeding to this Maruti Temple to ring the offending bell. What a funny bell it must be to upset our District Magistrate like this. Any way I am going to ring the bell and say to it "tinkle-tinkle little bell and let this order go to hell." Don't you mind this profane expression for once."

YET MORE ARRESTS

Ten persons were arrested, including Mr. Tembe Shastri of Hubli, Mr. Phansalkar, Pleader of Pandharpur, Mr. Shivdas Gandhi of Sholapur and Mr. Nanalal Vaidya of Poona. The total arrests from the beginning of Satyagraha number 449.—A Three Hindu women also offered Satyagraha but they were not arrested.

Cases against persons arrested till now, including those against Messrs L. B. Bhopatkar and his colleagues, are postponed till May 17.

Poona Temple Peace Move

CONGRESSMEN PRESENT FORMULA

But "Democrat" Leader Against Peaceful Settlement!

POONA, May 10.

Efforts that were being made over the week end by Congressmen to bring about a settlement of the question of music at the Sonya Maruti Temple by mutual agreement between the Hindus and Muslims have broken down.

Throwing the blame for this on the Democratic Swaraj Party, Mr. N. V. Gadgil, M.L.A. in a statement, says that a certain proposal was evolved and submitted to Mr. Bhopatkar for his Party's consideration but "the Party refused even to entertain the idea of a peaceful settlement". He adds that no further move will be made by Congressmen.

Mr. Bhopatkar has issued a statement declaring that while the proposals are detrimental to Hindu interests and favourable to Muslims, there is no guarantee that they would be acceptable to the Government.—A. P.

POONA TEMPLE BAN AND CIVIL LIBERTIES

POONA, May 10.

Mr. N. V. Phadke, Assistant Secretary of the Indian Civil Liberties Union and Mr. Mani of Nagpur met the District Magistrate this morning in connection with the Sonya Maruti music ban and placed before him the citizens' viewpoint.

They stated, it is understood, that the order seemed to be a definite infringement of civil liberties as the District Police Act, under which the order was promulgated, empowered the preservation of the 'status quo' while the existing order was a definite curtailment of the right of one community.

The Magistrate after giving a patient hearing pointed out that a breach of the peace was apprehended and this necessitated the action taken.—A. P.

Zetland's Statement Misses Vital Point

Madras Legislators Denounce Ministry: Blank Cheque To Party Leader

MADRAS, May 10.

The Secretary of the Congress Party in the Madras Legislature has issued the following official statement to the press:—

"The general body meeting of the Congress Party in the Madras Legislature was held on 9th instant at the Rangaswami Iyengar Memorial Hall, Thiagarajanagar. 131 members were present. Mr. C. Rajagopalachariar, Leader of the Party, presided.

CONGRESS POSITION EXPLAINED

"This being the first meeting of the general body of the Party that was held after the Governor's summons to the Leader and his refusal to form the Ministry, he explained to the members briefly the history of proceedings and the terms and implications of the resolution of the All-India Congress Committee and the Working Committee. He specially clarified and explained the importance of the Allahabad resolution of the Working Committee. He told the members that the Working Committee was unanimous in regard to the position taken by it, and stories about conflicts between the right and left wings were all unfounded.

ZETLAND'S STATEMENT ANALYSED

"Then he anlysed the most recent statement of the Secretary of State and explained the importance of the two points admitted by him in well-defined and clear language namely, "that the initiative and responsibility of the whole Government of the Province—though in form vesting in the Governor—would pass to the Ministry as soon as it took office", and the Secretary of State's further admission that the Governor would normally accept the advice of his Ministers and that, if at any moment he sees any risk that he and his Ministry may not see eye to eye in any matter falling within the so-called field of special responsibility, the Governor would not immediately set himself in open opposition to the Ministry, but that he would lay his own difficulties before his Ministers and do all he could to come to an agreement. There would thus be no artificial distinctions between matters of discretion and individual judgment.

LOGICAL CONCLUSION

"The logical conclusion of these two important admissions, the Leader explained, as that when after such mutual persuasion failed to bring about a common agreement and the Governor still thought of rejecting the advice of his Ministry, the initiative and responsibility of the Ministry should be taken to have ceased and the Congress position that the Governor should take the responsibility of dismissing the Ministers should be accepted. This, however, was left definitely untouched by the Secretary of State in his statement.

"The Leader explained that this being the principal issue as clarified in the Allahabad resolution, the Secretary of State's statement remained incomplete so far as the Congress Party was concerned. The Party expressed itself unanimously in agreement with the Leader in regard to the impressions over the Secretary of State's statement and authorised the Leader to speak and act on their behalf in this matter.

LEADER'S ACTION CONFIRMED

"The Party confirmed the action taken by its Leader in regard to the requisition sent to the Governor for convening the Legislature without delay and repudiating the Ministry now functioning as unconstitutional and unrelated to the verdict of the electorate and the submission to the Governor of the repudiation containing signatures of an overwhelming majority of the Legislature.

"The Party noted with gratitude the numerous expressions of public opinion in the country condemning the Interim Ministry and appealed to all constituencies and bodies to continue to agitate in the matter.

"The draft rules of the Party were then taken up clause by clause and passed"—United Press.
